CHICAGO

New World's Record in Running Race | BASE BALL A at Belmont Park-Big Foot Ball Teams at Practice-Golf.

With the world's series of base ball games out of the way, the experts and "fans" will settle back to a calm discussion of the great contests, and from present indications the

It is doubtful if a team, since the existence of organized base ball, had been so universally picked to win as the Chicago From Boston to St. Louis, in both the American and National League cities the base ball writers insisted upon placing the Cubs first and the Sox nowhere, a racing phrase. In those cities oth teams played, critics like Morse, Crane, Fogel, Phelan and Lanigan not only Chicago Nationals to win, but insisted that the series would be a walkthat the Sox would be lucky to game. One man would say that erless pitching force" of the Cubs would turn the trick, another would say the hitless wonders would be so weak at the bat as to be swamped," while another lamented the fact that the Sox were not in first-class condition so as to make the contests interesting. Mind you, these expresions came from writers who had witnessed games day after day throughout the season. and they certainly should have been able to tell first-class ball players if any one

The result of the series last year between the Athletics and Giants doubtless led to the biased expressions, the writers losing sight of the fact that the Quakers were car-ried along solely by their pitchers. An-other point between the two clubs were their intellectual and physical make-up.

Last year Harry Davis, Monte Cross, Seybold, Schreck and Plank were talking about being defeated before the first game was played, while the White Sox to a man see nothing but victory ahead, notwithstanding that the team, as a whole, was not in any better shape than the Ath-letics a year ago. Imagine one of the Quakers insisting upon playing the games after his nose had been broken, as did little men of steel and the players behind them appeared as reincarnations—casting aside their definess in fielding and wielding the way as to cause consternation in Americans Strongest.

The Star has always maintained that the American League is much the stronger organization of the two, and from the way the White Sox had to play for the premiership of that body substantiates that belief. Many were led to pick the Cubs simply won in their race, without stopping to conthe class of contenders from which race of 1906 was concerned, it was the case platers and a bunch of skates. ist of last July the only real point to decide was the place money. The easy manner in were, and, conversely, the Sox were under-estimated because of the tough sledding which they experienced in capturing the American League pennant.

The one big point where the "dopsters" ent wrong was on the consistency of the hite Sox. a point never lost sight of by close followers of the horse-racing game. From 1900 until the present time the Sox has had but one bad season, and since Fielder Jones has had charge of the team hey have always been factors in the pen-work on the diamond that made the Sox the envied organization of the American League and the other managers appeared to take especial delight in throwing them down. This opposition demonstrated conclusively their pugnastic make-up and in-stead of weakening under the continuous fire of facing the best pitchers in the coun-try they played their best. Their reputa-tion of "hitless wonders" developed through this opposition. Of the seventy-odd games played away from home by the Sox the past season, how many times were they up against weak twirlers? At the outside, not over a dozen, and the same thing applies to their games at home. Under those condi-tions how could they become sluggers? Here in Washington we have seen the local pitchers weaken toward the end of the game, and if any one thought for a minute that the White Sox couldn't hit the ball they should have seen them then,

The fact of the matter is that the White have all along been strong in the field and strong at the bat, every man on the team being of that sort who could wallop the ball if given half a chance. This chance developed in the world's series and they were cutch as a parallel assertion. vere quick as usual grasping the oppormaintained harmony, got them working their heads off for him and under these con ditions there was simply nothing to it but victory. The White Sox won three championships, world's, league and city, and they deserved it.

CHICAGO CUBS

TO BE BANQUETED

CHICAGO., Ill., October 16.-Comiskey's World's Champion White Sox almost got their feet on terra firma yesterday. The swirl that swept these players into victory over the Cubs made Chicago a maelstrom of base ball currents and slightly disturbed the earth's orbit, relaxed long enough to permit Manager Jones and his players to get some early morning sleep. All of them. took long, refreshing breaths of the invigorating fall atmosphere before they emerged from their homes and tried to be unconcerned over their gamely won honors.

Both victors and canquished were guests of the national commission last night in an after-theater party and after the cigars and offee each player received a check from the supreme court of base ball representing his share of the players' percentage of the first four games of the championship series. All told the twenty-one White Sox divided more than $40,000.

A Cub partisan who was sitting in the circus seats in right field said Capt. Chance's protest was simply an attempt to work a bold b'uff on the umpire.

"Schulte was not within six feet of the seats when he reached up for the ball," said this fan. "Not a soul touched him. In fact, the crowd spread and let him come in. Of course, all the Sox fans were jeering him, but no one made the slightest motion toward touching him. Had they done so they would have had me to lick right then and there, and I was keyed up to go some myself."

LOSER IN CONNECTICUT

HARTFORD, Conn., October 16 .- After a strong plea for new blood and more activity in the business organization of the Connecticut League of Base Ball Clubs, at the annual meeting of the league held here yesterday, the personnel of the officers was changed, W. J. Tracy of Bristol being elected president in place of Sturgis Whitlock of New Haven. Other officers chosen were: Vice president, A. E. Taylor, Chicopee, Mass.; secretary, James H. O'Rourke, Bridgeport; treasurer, T. P. Prindeville, Holyoke; directors, Cornelius J. Danaher, New Haven; James H. Clarkin, Hartford; James H. O'Rourke, Bridgeport; J. J. Masden, Holyoke; C. H. Humphrey, New London; Harold R. Durant, Waterbury; Daniel J. O'Neil, Springfield, and H. B. Davenport, Norwich.

treasurer's report showed a balance of $120.32, but the secretary reported that several bills remained unpaid, which made a deficit of $240.35. In order to meet this each club was assessed $35.

The official averages show that Burke of New Haven, but now of the New York Nationals, led the league in batting with an average of .349. Ladd of Bridgeport was second with .321. Burke led in extra hits, having 27 two-base hits, 10 three-base hits, and 10 home runs. Ba'l of Norwich and Yale of Springfield led in stolen bases with 56 each, Keane of New London being third

GOLFERS AT MYOPIA

HAMILTON, Mass., October 16 .- A picked field of twenty golfers, including Eben M. Byers of Pittsburg, the present national amateur champion; Walter J. Travis of Garden City, a former national as well as British champion: H. J. Wigham, the title holder in 1896 and 1897; C. B. McDonald. the first champion in this country, and Hahn. It was this spirit that won out, and | many other players of national reputation made the three days' invitation tournament which began at the Myopia Hunt Club yesterday one of the most interesting in the golfing year.

J. B. Hylan of the Vesper Country Club of Lowell led the field in the qualifying round in the morning with an 82, while Travis was second, with 83. P. W. Whittemore of Brae Burn had 84, while Byers and W. C. Chick of Oakley scored 85 each. Whigham played the course in 91 strokes and MacDonald did an 88. F. O. Horstman of Philadelphia and Archie Graham of New York played rather poorly, getting 97 and 93, respectively, while W. P. Smith of Philadelphia, with the help of a pretty three on the last hole, made an 88. In the first round at match play Mc-Donald, Whigham, Horstman and Graham were put out among others. McDonald had to face the redoubtable Travis, and fell an easy prey by a score of 4 up and 2 to play. Travis played his usual strong game and his deadly approach shots counted Archie Graham was fairly outclassed by the national champion. After the first few holes had been played the match was a foregone conclusion. Byers drove a long ball off the tee and his short game was consistently strong, so that he won by 6 up and 5 to play. Whigham, who has neglected his golf in recent years, gave Smith, the Philadelphia expert, a fairly good match, but the latter won by a safe margin. Horstman went down before Hugo Johnstone, the long J. B. Hylan, who jumped to fame by leading the strong field home in the quali-fying round, continued his good work in the afternoon and put out T. G. Stevenson. He will meet Smith today for a further The summary of the first match play round follows:

J. R. Hylan, Vesper, defeated T. G. Stevenson, Myopia, 2 up and 1 to play.

W. P. Smith, Philadelphia, defeated H. J. Whigham, Chicago, 3 up and 2 to play.

Hugo R. Johnstone, Myopia, defeated T. O. Horstman, Philadelphia, 3 up and I to play.

E. M. Byers, Pittsburg, defeated Archie Graham, New York, 6 up and 5 to play.

W. J. Travis, Garden City, defeated C. B. McDonald, Garden City, 4 up and 2 to play.

Arden M. Robbins St. Andrews, defeated L. C. Fenno, Country Club, 3 up and 2 to play.

P. W. Whittemore, Brac Burn, defeated Fay Ingalls, Country Club, 3 up and 2 to play.

W. C. Chick, Oakley, defeated G. F. Wilett, Oakley, 1 up.

WORK OF BIG FOUR FOOT BALLISTS

Quakers Diligently Searching for New Quarter Back.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., October 16,-Smarting under the defeat of Saturday by Swarthmore, "Pennsyl's" gridiron squad vesterday afternoon got down to hard practice. "Bob" Torrey, head coach, still has hopes that he can whip the players into good foot ball condition before the close of the season. The need of a quarterback to replace Sheble is imperative, and there was no disguising the fact that the coaches were scanning the material at hand with almost ain some one capable of holding kicks. Marshall Reynolds, assistant coach, tried Luby, Lee, Longwell, Sheble, Walker and Keinath at catching long twisters. Kelnath was handicapped by an injured leg and Walker has still decorated optics. Luby made an especially good showing, and caused "Mike" Murphy to comment immediately on his work. "It is the best I have seen this year," said "Mike." Longwell is too valuable to take from the back field, and the fight has narrowed down to Lee, Luby and Sheble. "Bob" Folwell injured his left ankle Sunday while alighting from an automobile, and was not in yesterday's practice, while "Big Bill" Hollenback has been vigorously attacked by boils. The rest of the team all entered the practice.

New Tiger Out for Team.

PRINCETON, N. J., October 16.-With a generous allowance of time ahead before the Bucknell game next Saturday, the coaches let the regular men off from work yeserday afternoon in order to give them a complete rest from the wear of the Annapolls game, and the practice was carried on between the "subs" and the "scrub." A new and apparently promising candidate, Evan Cameron, 1997, appeared for the first time. Holt, one of the coaches, devoted a great deal of individual attention to him. He was played at tackle in the scrimmage and afterward Holt put him through some individual drill at center. Cameron books easily good for 200 pounds, and if he takes to the game properly he may give Phillips an interesting fight for the place.

The scrimmage was mostly a kicking game, and while it was brisk, of course the bsence of the regular 'varsity line-up made it less interesting than usual. The college is not disturbed over the low score in the Annapolis game, though it was a surprise and a disappointment when it came. But it is probable that no other game this season has done more to show the coaches the points on which improvement must be worked for. On the whole, the low score, both for its moral effect and its practical lessons, may have proved a blessing in dis-guise. Annapolis made a fight that was far beyond expectations, and it was due to Annapolis pluck as much as to Tiger weak-

Harvard Stars Get a Rest.

BOSTON, Mass., October 16.-W. T. Reld gave his first string warriors a good rest yesterday, and few of the stars who figured n Saturday's game against the Amherst 'Aggies" played in the scrimmage yesterday afternoon. "Bill" Starr, the first string quarter back, who has been on the "hospital squad' for some time, returned yes-terday and had charge of the 'varsity in the scrimmage. "Jack" Wendell took the sigscrimmage. "Jack" Wendell took the signals at full back, and he will probably remain in that position until Apollonio or main in that position until Apollonio A. V. Gray recovers from his injuries. A. V. Kidder of the junior class reported to Reid, and he will be a welcome addition to the squad, as he tips the beam at more the squad, as he tips the beam at more the squad. than 200 pounds and has a splendid "prep" school reputation while playing at An-

Crawford Blagden of New York and Malcolm Donald, both old 'varsity tackles, joined the coaching staff yesterday afternoon. Crawford was identified with "Dave" Campbell's 1901 championship eleven, and Donald played on "Ben" Dioblee's winning team in 1898. There was no scoring in the scrimmage, which lasted twenty-five min-

Coaches Flocking to Yale.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., October 16 .- The regulars of the Yale foot ball eleven were cause of the hard game with Holy Cross last Saturday. Hard work was the portion of the first substitutes and "scrubs." Foot ball was put under prohibition in Strong school here because a boy had his leg broken last Saturday. The school principals expect an order from the superintendent of schools that will prohibit any teams representing public schools here. Although practice at Yale Field was tame, interest looked up with the arrival of Frank quartet. George A. Adee also came and took the quarter back substitutes in charge. Drop kicking will be given over to the tutelage of former Mayor Vance Mc-Cormick of Harrisburg, Pa, who is expected tomorrow. Carl A. Flanders left today to coach the Carlisle Indians.

Want Foot Ball Games.

The Holy Name Athletic Club foot ball team would like to arrange games with teams in or around the District averaging 125 pounds. Laurel High School, Brookland Athletic Club of Maurey's preferred. Challenges should be addressed to M. Hollander, 10 H street northeast. The line-up of the team follows: J. Collins, center; W. Nolan, R. G.; W. O'Connell, L. G.; B. Kelley, R. T.; T. Kerrigan, L. FOOT BALL NOTES.

The new foot ball rules make it more difficult to kill an opponent, and, therefore, add to the excitement of the game. One loud cry of those opposed to the changed regulations all along has been that there would not be any scoring. Thus far this has not been the case, and a comparison of scores made so fars fall and for a corresponding period last year shows scoring results to be practically the same. Beavers of West Point is doing some great kicking. He has made many long place kicks and his punting is a feature any eleven would be glad to have to fall

The University of Michigan has opened its new athletic field, which is one of the finest equipped in the country and is en-tered through a $11,000 gate. Dartmouth has a big deficiency to over-come in lacking a good punter. One is more essential this year than ever, and Coach Ralph Glaze is drilling a large squad each afternoon in this department of the game.

"Hurry Up" Yost of Michigan says he will get a backfield together that will be the fastest quartet that can be found, and that beef will be sacrificed for speed and endurance. This may add to Penn's present cupful of disery.

Yale appears to have mastered the short kick, and in future games it is apt to be shown that there is no better player in the east than Tad Jones, when it comes to gaining ground on a quarter back run. Brown has a splendid line this year from tackle to tackle and ends that are almost Whitney's Brookdale Nymph, 2 to 1 favorite, who, after getting away poorly, managed to take third money from Pinkerton by three parts of a length.

In a sharp drive the Hampton stable's Oleroso, even-money favorite, captured the Meadow Brook handleap steeplechase, at about three miles, from T. Hitchcock jr.'s Orthodox, 5 to 1, by half a length. The latter made most of the running and finished three lengths before C. Pfizer's Gypsic, 10 to 1. J. W. Colt's Philatist, 7 to 2, was badly beaten. The winner was well handled. The race was run in 6.32.

There was nothing to the fourth event, for maiden two-year-old colts, six and a half furlongs, but Woodford Clay's Hard Shot, 7 to 10 favorite, who came away at the last furlong pole and passed the judges four lengths in front of the Delaware stable's Linnepee, 15 to 1, with A. L. Aste's Herman, 7 to 1, three parts of a length back.

The time was 1.19 3-5.

Mike Clancy's Tommy Waddell, 6 to 1, came to life in the last race, a handicap at a mile and three-sixteenths. He had a world of speed and ran away from the others as soon as he hit the stretch. Horothers as soon as he hit the stretch. Hor-ner eased him at the end, where he won by two lengths in 1.58 2-5, with Chimney Sweep, backed down to 6, getting up in time to take the place from Good Luck, 7 to 5 favorite, by a head. The latter had the same margin over Willie Shields Holscher, played from 20 down to 12. Two favorites and two second choices won, with the other two winners also well supported. The attendance was about 10,000.

The Summaries.

HUGHES ADDRESSES LONG IS-LANDERS FIFTEEN TIMES.

A dispatch from Sag Harbor, N. Y., says in a campaign tour, which started this morning from the borders of New York city and ended in this quaint little fishing village, far to the eastward of Long Island, Charles E. Hughes, republican nominee for governor, set a new mark in the state campaign today. He delivered no less than fifteen speeches n villages and towns along the south shore of the island and was greeted in each place by considerable gatherings, the number of nearers varying with the size of the place. Mr. Hughes made the journey in a special rain of two cars and an engine and rode between two of the stations in the cab of the engine. It was his first experience in this line and he declared he thoroughly enoyed it.

This tour is to be practically duplicated when Mr. Hughes starts back for New York and will speak in places along the north shore and in the center of Long Island. A feature of his meetings today was the large number of women and children in the various audiences. In Rockville Center, Freeport and Patchogue, where the largest crowds were gathered, the school children received the places of honor and Mr. Hughes addressed re-marks to them.

Ought to Be Proud. He told them to study the history of the United States and to be proud of their institutions. He told the children to read of Abraham Lincoln and to be like him as fa as it was in their power. Mr. Hughes in one of his addresses also spoke a few words to the women present, telling them they were the hope of Mr. Hughes left New York at 9:45 o'clock yesterday morning and made his first Early but Enthusiastic. It was early when the train stopped in Valley Stream and Lynbrook, and a hundred men and women were gathered in each place. Mr. Hughes addressed them briefly, and then descending from the platform shook hands with all he could reach. In Valley Stream little Elmer Hendrickson, three years old, was litted up by his uncle to give Mr. Hughes a bunch of flowers. The nominee took the boy up and kissed him and pinned the flowers on his coat.
